

Rheumatology Research Foundation

Advancing Treatment | Finding Cures

Student and Resident ACR Convergence Scholarship

The mission of the Rheumatology Research Foundation is to advance research and training to improve the health of people with rheumatic diseases.

As a part of the Choose Rheumatology campaign, the Foundation encourages students and residents to explore a career in rheumatology. The purpose of the Student and Resident ACR Convergence Scholarship is to introduce students and residents in areas of the United States underserved by rheumatologists and rheumatology health professionals, to the specialty of rheumatology and rheumatology-related health care in order to better serve patients with rheumatic and musculoskeletal diseases. Students and residents from racial and ethnic groups that have been shown to be underrepresented in health-related science are also eligible to receive the Student and Resident ACR Convergence Scholarship.

Awardees will be given a one-year ACR or ARP membership and complimentary registration for the 2022 ACR Convergence, as well as $2,000 for travel expenses. At the meeting, awardees will attend an exclusive half-day Choose Rheumatology event.

ACR Convergence (November 9-14, 2022 in Philadelphia, PA)

The meeting features the latest innovations, science, clinical and business best practices in rheumatology. You will get first-hand access to the latest discoveries and research transforming rheumatic disease care, as well as clinical applications that will improve the health of patients. It is an opportunity to experience personalized learning that allows you to expand your knowledge to new areas of interest and focus in rheumatology. For more information about the ACR Convergence check out ACR Convergence 2022.

Choose Rheumatology Experience

The event will take place during the ACR Convergence and involves a breakfast and introductory educational sessions, followed by poster tours and/or selected meeting sessions where students and residents will be paired with rheumatology fellow-in-training mentors. More details about the event will be provided to awardees once they have been confirmed.

Award Amount: $2,000 for travel expenses (including air fare, hotel and meals) and registration to the 2022 ACR Convergence, plus a one-year ACR/ARP Membership.

All applications must be submitted by 5:00 PM ET on the deadline day through ProposalCentral at: Proposal Central.

If you have any questions about your eligibility or submitting your application, please contact Award & Grants staff at 404-365-1373 or Foundation@rheumatology.org.

Application Deadline

August 1, 2022

Guidelines

Eligibility

- All award recipients must abide by Foundation Awards and Grants Policies at all times.
- The applicant must be a currently enrolled graduate student; medical student; or internal medicine, pediatric, or combined medicine/pediatrics resident at a U.S. institution.
- Applicant must meet one of the criteria below:
 - The applicant must be a permanent resident of, or be enrolled at an accredited institution in a state that has been designated as "underserved", based on definitions provided by IDeA and HRSA programs. Eligible states are Alaska, Arkansas, Delaware, Hawaii, Idaho, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Vermont, West Virginia, Wyoming.
 - The applicant is from a racial or ethnic group that has been shown to be underrepresented in biomedical research (as defined by the National Science Foundation). This includes Blacks or African Americans, Hispanics or Latinos, American Indians or Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians, and other Pacific Islanders.

Award Terms and Funding

This is a one-year award and awardees will receive the following:

- $2,000 stipend for travel expenses (including air fare, hotel and meals) to attend the 2022 ACR Convergence
 - Note: Student will be paid a stipend in advance of meeting but will be asked to submit original receipts to the Foundation following the meeting. Recipients will be issued a 1099 form for any funds not accounted for via receipts.
- Complimentary registration to the 2022 ACR Convergence
- One-year ACR/ARP membership
- Attendance at the Choose Rheumatology Experience

Application Instructions

Before starting the online application, you will be required to create a Professional Profile in ProposalCentral, if you have not already. To do so, visit this link to begin creating your account.

All files must be saved as a PDF. Documents that do not have a required template should be formatted with ½ inch margin, 11-point Arial Font, and single-spacing (does not apply to figures and tables). All applications and documents must be written in English and avoid use of jargon. If terms are not universally known, spell out the term the first time it is used and note the appropriate abbreviation in parentheses. The acronym may be used thereafter.

Note: The Foundation does not require official signature from an authorized institutional research office at the time of application. However, many institutions require an application to be reviewed prior to submission. Please check with your research office for your institution's requirements.

Applicant Information

You will be asked to confirm your eligibility and provide contact information in this section. In addition to the applicant information requested, you will be asked to upload the following documents:

Student/Resident Resume, CV, or Biosketch

Limit to 5 pages.

Statement of Need

Limit to 1 page.

- Description of applicant's current career plans and interest in rheumatology, including why this award is needed.

Letter of Recommendation

Limit to 1 page.

- Letter of recommendation from a faculty member from the applicant's institution confirming their enrollment at the institution and availability for attendance to the ACR Convergence Meeting, as well as the Choose Rheumatology Experience.

Choose Rheumatology Lifetime of Care,
Discovery and Work-life Balance Choose Rheumatology online!

