

Lawren H. Daltroy Health Professional Preceptorship

The mission of the Rheumatology Research Foundation is to advance research and training to improve the health of people with rheumatic disease.

The Lawren H. Daltroy Award was designed to improve patient-clinician interactions through the development of a more qualified and trained health professional workforce. Applicants may be health professionals pursuing graduate education beyond entry-level training, completing a post-doctoral fellowship, or in clinical practice who are not on a doctoral tract.

Mentored projects may include training, career development or research that will ultimately impact personal patient-clinician interactions or the broader field of patient communications.

Award Amount: Up to $12,000 for one year

All applications must be submitted by 5:00 PM ET on the deadline day through WizeHive at <https://app.wizehive.com/apps/Daltroy>

Applications are accepted 4 times per year as detailed below:

Applications Due	Notifications

Guidelines

All applicants and award recipients must abide by Foundation Awards and Grants Policies at all times. A list of current policies is available at www.rheumresearch.org.

Eligibility

- Preceptee must meet citizenship and other eligibility requirements as outlined in the Awards and Grants policies.
- Preceptor must be an ARHP member
- This award is not intended for physicians.

If you have questions about your eligibility, please contact the Foundation before preparing your application.

Review Criteria

Each application will be reviewed on the following criteria:

1. Scientific merit and relevance to patient-clinician interactions or patient communications
2. Preceptor's credentials as related to the project and previous experience as a mentor
3. Quality of the mentorship environment provided by the preceptor
4. Appropriateness and feasibility of the preceptee's role in the project.
5. Likelihood that the preceptee will continue a career in rheumatology

Awardees will be notified within 8 weeks of the deadline, and all award payments will be made within 2 weeks receipt of required paperwork.

Award Terms and Funding

Awards are funded for one year. No continued support is available. The award amount of $12,000 will be paid directly to the sponsoring institution. Award funds may be used toward salary, fringe, stipend, tuition, travel, books, or other educational or research needs. If used for salary, salary levels should be set by the institution.

Funding Source

Funding for this award is made possible through an endowment established by Rheuminations, Inc.
